Our Latin America practice

As trusted legal advisors in the region, Allen & Overy remains the go-to global law firm in Latin America for infrastructure, projects, and banking & finance

1. Projects

We are a global and regional leader in projects. Year after year, we are ranked as the world's leading legal advisor in the Dealogic Global Project Finance League Tables and we were named the Global Advisor of the Year by Infrastructure Journal for 8 years in a row. We were also named the Project Finance Law Firm of the Year for 2019 by IFLR. We have unparalleled experience in large-scale, cross-border financings across industrial sectors involving export credit agencies, multilateral agencies, commercial banks, project bonds and monoline insurers. We represent sponsors, governments, construction companies, lenders, export credit agencies and multilateral agencies on the most complex projects and project financings in Latin America.

2. Banking & Finance

Our award winning banking & finance practice is in a unique position to support clients' ever-changing needs in Latin America. We provide advice of the highest quality to international banks, sovereigns, government agencies and corporations. Our expertise enables us to advise our clients on asset finance, trade finance, financial services regulations, global loans, leveraged finance, projects, restructurings and securitizations. We are at the cutting edge of developments in all of these fields.

3. Corporate/Mergers & Acquisitions

We represent Latin American and multinational corporations in a variety of corporate finance transactions. We advise buyers, sellers, financial advisors and financiers with interests in Latin America on privatizations, mergers and acquisitions. Our experience includes acquisitions and dispositions in the energy and telecommunications sectors, among others, as well as deals involving "distressed" assets in insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings.

4. Capital Markets

Our Capital Markets practice has experience in all aspects of capital markets transactions throughout Latin America. We represent underwriters and issuers in debt and equity offerings, including SEC-registered and Rule 144A/Reg S offerings, Eurobond offerings, as well as liability management transactions, securitizations and repackageings. We are also a global leader in derivatives and main outside counsel for ISDA. Most recently, we have advised our clients on some of the region's first 4(a)(2) U.S. private placements for project financings, a trend we see picking up over the coming years across Latin America.

5. Restructuring

Our restructuring group enjoys an outstanding reputation for its work on restructuring and insolvency-related matters as our lawyers are at the forefront of commercial and technical developments and work on some of the most high-profile Latin American cases.

6. International Arbitration

Our Latin America-facing international arbitration practice includes experienced practitioners across our offices in New York and London with an established track record in handling major arbitrations involving Latin American parties or that arise from transactions in Latin America, both as lawyers and as arbiters, which gives considerable advantage to our clients.

7. U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA)

Allen & Overy offers a comprehensive range of anti-corruption and U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA)-related representations for companies, their boards, and their management, including internal investigations, individual representations, and the defense of government investigations, enforcement actions and criminal/civil proceedings. Parties or that arise from transactions in Latin America, both as lawyers and as arbiters, which gives considerable advantage to our clients.

William Jacobson

Partner – Washington D.C.

Tel +1 202 683 3883

william.jacobson@allenoverly.com

Billy focuses his practice on FCPA and white collar enforcement, representing corporates, individuals, and financial institutions. Billy has over 25 years of experience, having served as the Chief Compliance Officer and Co-General Counsel of a global oilfield services company, as a federal prosecutor -- including as Assistant Chief for FCPA Enforcement in DOJ's Fraud Section, and in private practice. Billy's expertise both in corporate compliance and corporate criminal defense is a rare combination that serves clients well. Billy is Chambers-rated for both FCPA and white collar enforcement generally.

Billy has significant experience representing clients in Latin America across a wide range of complex issues. Most notably, Billy recently completed the monitorship of Braskem SA, a large multi-national petrochemical company based in Brazil that settled enforcement actions in 2016. He was appointed as an independent compliance monitor by the DOJ, SEC and the Brazilian MPF. His experience also includes the representation of an oil field services company in a Lava Jato-related investigation by DOJ regarding conduct in Brazil; the representation of a commodity trader in a DOJ FCPA investigation regarding conduct in Venezuela; conducting diligence on approximately 20 separate acquisition targets in Latin America; and conducting internal investigations and compliance audits in Colombia, Brazil, Mexico, Argentina and Venezuela.

Patrick Pearsall

Partner – Washington D.C.

International Arbitration

Dispute with Government of Ecuador

IDB, OPIC, EXIM Bank and EDC as lenders, in a dispute arising with the Government of Ecuador regarding the State's expropriation of the investments made for the financing of the New Quiport International. The ICSID proceedings were suspended pending settlement discussions, which have now been successfully concluded. This dispute was awarded "Dispute of the Year" by Latin Lawyer in 2011, which recognized the case as "one of the most complex project disputes in Latin America's recent history."

Arbitration with a Latin America state

A South American gas company owned and controlled by Dutch nationals, as constructor and operator of a transnational natural gas pipeline in South America. Our client filed an arbitration claim against a Latin American State under the relevant bilateral investment treaty due to the State's failure to provide our client with tax reimbursements in connection with the transportation of natural gas. The Government agreed to pay all amounts sought by our client.

Negotiations in oil and gas

A German and a Dutch energy company in negotiations with a Latin American State in connection with the nationalization of the oil and gas industry by the Government. The Government agreed to pay the amount of compensation sought by our client.

Arbitration with the Republic of Peru

The Republic of Peru in an arbitration commenced by a Chinese investor under the China-Peru Bilateral Investment Treaty and under the ICSID arbitration rules. The dispute concerned the alleged indirect expropriation of the claimant's investment in a locally-incorporated company. The Tribunal issued a final award in July 2011 granting the claimant a small fraction of the claim sought in the arbitration.

Expropriation dispute

Three Cayman Islands subsidiaries of a large North American distribution utility in a dispute concerning the expropriation of their ownership interest in an electricity distributor in Central America.

Arbitration with Republic of Uruguay

A subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co. in an arbitration against the Republic of Uruguay in which the State asserted counterclaims for more than USD700m. Our client obtained a unanimous award rejecting all of the respondent State's counterclaims. The evidentiary hearing was conducted in English and Spanish.

Arbitration with the Republic of Uruguay

A subsidiary of JPMorgan Chase & Co. in an international arbitration against the Republic of Uruguay, in which our client successfully obtained an arbitration award of more than USD100m and secured judicial recognition and enforcement of that award in federal court in New York. The evidentiary hearing was conducted in English and Spanish.

Arbitration in telecoms industry

A global telecommunications operator in an international arbitration arising from a shareholder dispute concerning the control of Brasil Telecom. After a full evidentiary hearing, our client settled the case on favorable terms.

Hospitality arbitration in Panama

An international hospitality company in two parallel arbitration proceedings in Panama relating to the construction of a hotel. One of the two proceedings involved a two-week evidentiary hearing conducted in Spanish and English. Both proceedings resulted in victories for our client.

Joint Operating Agreement ICC Arbitration

An energy company based in Argentina, the respondent in ICC arbitration proceedings in London, concerning a dispute under a joint operating agreement and a gas balancing agreement governed by English law, relating to a natural gas exploration and production project in Argentina.

Arbitration for water concession rights

The Latin American subsidiary of a UK water services company in an arbitration commenced by the water and sewage agency of a Latin American State. The dispute concerns the amount of compensation owed to our client for the cancellation of a 30-year concession for the construction and operation of a drinkable water plant.

Power plant ICC arbitration

Two Brazilian corporations involved in the construction, operation and maintenance of electric power plants in Brazil, in an ICC arbitration commenced by a multinational engine manufacturer. The dispute arose from a contract for the manufacture and supply of specialized equipment for a thermoelectric power plant.

LNG dispute

An energy company on a dispute with its joint venture partner in an LNG project in Trinidad and Tobago.

Oil and Gas arbitration

A private natural gas transport company in an ad hoc (UNCITRAL Rules proposed) arbitration under the Netherlands-Bolivian Bilateral Investment Treaty. The dispute arose from a failure by the Republic of Bolivia to issue tax credits in respect of the Gas TransBoliviano pipeline which transports natural gas from Bolivia to Brazil.

Hotel arbitration

A civil engineering and building contractor based in the Caribbean on an UNCITRAL arbitration arising out of the construction of a hotel, including dealing with claims for variations, extensions of time and additional contract sums.

Commercial arbitration in Belize

Various claimants including a telecommunications company, in two successful commercial arbitrations against the Government of Belize, brought under the rules of the LCIA, in disputes arising out of breaches of concession agreements. We successfully obtained injunctive relief from the arbitral tribunal, acted on related enforcement proceedings in Belize and the U.S., and defended anti-suit injunction proceedings before the Belize courts on enforcement of an arbitral award.

Expropriation dispute

Three Cayman Islands subsidiaries of Fortis Inc., the largest investor-owned distribution utility in Canada, in a dispute concerning the expropriation of their ownership interest in Belize Electricity Limited (BEL), the primary distributor of electricity in Belize. A trigger letter under the UK Belize Bilateral Investment Treaty (which has been extended to the Cayman Islands) was sent to the Government of Belize in July 2011. In mid-November 2011, a compensation claim under the Electricity (Amendment) Act (the expropriatory decree) was filed with Belize's Financial Secretary. Also in November 2011, a constitutional challenge and an intervention were filed before the Caribbean Court of Justice to challenge the Electricity (Amendment) Act as well as the 8th Amendment Act, which purports to amend Belize's Constitution to prevent any challenges to the expropriatory legislation.
